A disguised warrior on a mission to save a dying kingdom, but what if God more in mind? Aria has left home with one goal. Find the weapon used to defeat the horde of the Black Knight and save what remains of her kingdom. But things are not going as planned. Hidden as a knight, she saves the young prince of the neighboring kingdom, and tales of her fighting prowess spread like a raging fire. Now within the castle walls of a foreign kingdom, a disguised young girl serves as her page and confidante. And the widower king and his enemies are taking notice of her. But the legendary weapon is nowhere to be found. What is God doing? Will Aria be able to save her home without losing her heart?
