Jakob is a blue-collar worker who lives on Jupiter's ice moon, Europa. When he's not scraping Belt barnacles he's looking for a good time, so his devious co-worker sets him up on a blind date with a gorgeous woman. It seems too good to be true. The world may seem to be a smaller place than it was 100 years ago, partially because of the internet and faster travel. What happens when we expand, as a species, and there are once again vast distances between us?
